

Custom 3D-printed special nozzle for your Sika PowerCure dispenser

After submitting your defective device, you will receive a free sample nozzle!

Did you know that you can optimize your adhesive application directly with our special nozzles?

We help you optimize your industrial bonding processes for repeatable precision. With our custom-made cartridge nozzles, we offer solutions that are specifically tailored to your needs.

Convince yourself of the savings potential that 3D printing offers. The customized nozzles produced using the 3D printing process make every application easier and save you money.

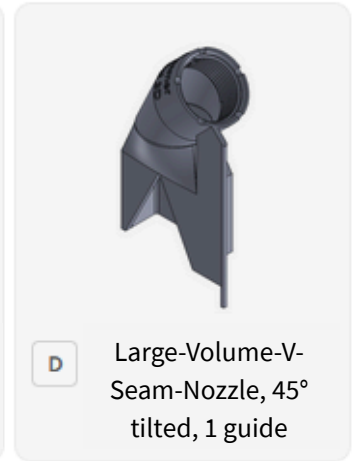

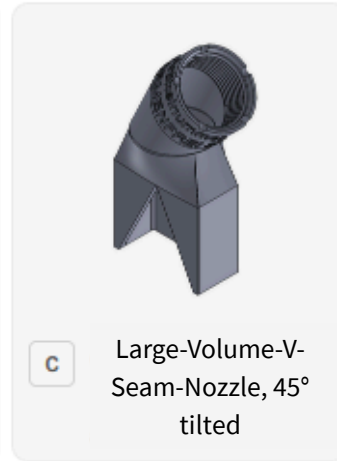

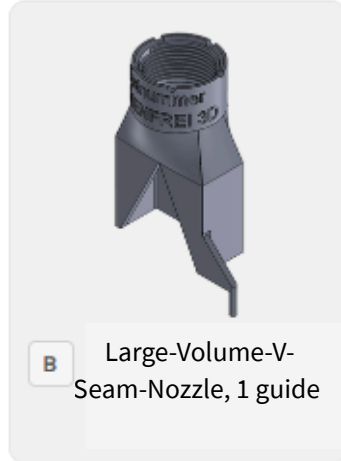

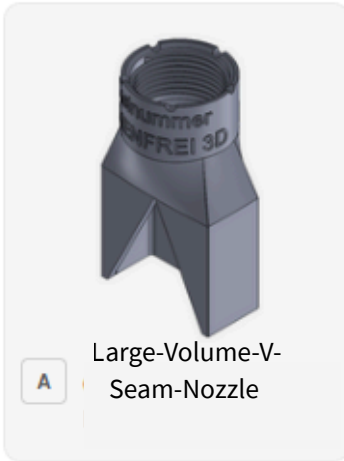

See the V-seam nozzle in action here!

Configure your freely selectable sample now!

Which Type of Large-Volume-V-Seam-Düse do you need?*

Your V-seam nozzle from the configurator

You have endless possibilities to create your desired V-seam nozzles with the world's first 3D printing configurator for nozzles and static mixers. The configurator allows you to obtain nozzles that are perfectly tailored to your application.

Your Benefits

- Guide mandrel can be freely selected
- Triangular bead can be freely dimensioned
- Shortened process times
- Lower costs

Request your desired nozzle for reproducible bonding with the desired geometry of your adhesive bead now. Price from $1.98/piece*

Try it out—the configurator is free and non-binding!

 Get in touch now!
3ddruck@innotech-rot.de

• with a minimum purchase quantity of 250 pieces.